National Severe Weather Warning Service

Chief Forecasters Assessment
Scattered heavy showers are expected during Friday and, although some places will miss them altogether, where they do occur as much as 5 to 10 mm of rain could fall in less than an hour. Given that the ground is already saturated this could lead to localised flooding.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 06:00 on Fri, 12th Oct 2012 until 23:59 on Fri, 12th Oct 2012

Scattered heavy showers are expected on Friday. With the ground already saturated from the recent wet weather the public should be aware that the heaviest of these could lead to localised flooding and disruption to travel.
